

CONSTITUTION
JusticeLink SA

This is the annexure marked "A" referred to in the statutory declaration of Kerry Emma Clark made on the 25th day of August 2008 at Adelaide before me:

Signed..... Print Name:.....
A Commissioner for the Taking of Affidavits in the Supreme Court of South Australia

1. Name and objects

- 1.1 The name of the Association is “JusticeLink SA” (“the Association”).
- 1.2 The objects of the Association are:
- (a) To assist those in the general public in South Australia who are unable to afford private legal services to find solicitors and, where appropriate, counsel, who are willing to act pro bono.
 - (b) To refer persons who may be eligible for assistance from:
 - (i) the Legal Services Commission of South Australia;
 - (ii) the Public Advocate;
 - (iii) the Legal Assistance Fund; or
 - (vi) a South Australian Community Legal Serviceto those organisations.
 - (c) To accept referrals from the organisations listed in 1.2(b) above of those persons who are not eligible for assistance from a particular organisation and to either direct them to a more appropriate service or to assist those persons to find private legal representation as set out in paragraph 1.2(a).
 - (d) To encourage individual legal practitioners and firms to carry out more pro bono work.
 - (e) To encourage individual legal practitioners and firms to provide assistance, whether financial or by providing volunteer staff or other resources, to the organisations listed in 1.2(b) above.
 - (f) To assist legal practitioners to make applications to the Legal Assistance Fund in relation to appropriate matters.
 - (g) To maintain a register of those legal practitioners and firms who are willing to offer assistance as outlined in 1.2(a) and/or 1.2(e).
 - (h) To screen and/or prioritise applications for assistance from the general public on the basis of need and merit.
 - (i) To raise funds to enable the Association to carry out these objects.
 - (j) To do all such other things as may be incidental to the attainment of these objects.
 - (k) Any other charitable or benevolent objects as the Association may in General Meeting decide.
- 1.3 For the avoidance of doubt, the Association acts as a referral service; it is not itself a provider of legal services.
- 1.4 The Association will not accept the payment of commissions or any other incentive to refer clients to a particular firm or legal practitioner and will make referrals based solely on the best interests of the client.
- 1.5 The reference to “persons” in the Association’s Objects includes community and not-for-profit organisations.
- 1.6 The Association aims to ensure that litigants in so-called “test cases” or matters which are in the public interest are adequately resourced and ably represented. However, the Association’s services are not limited to such matters and the Association will endeavour to provide assistance to persons in need regardless of the nature of their case.

2. Membership

2.1 Membership of the Association shall consist of:

- (a) Individual Members as defined in clause 2.2;
- (b) Corporate Members as defined in clause 2.3; and
- (c) Honorary Members as defined in clause 2.4.

2.2 Individual Members

- (a) Individual Members must be natural persons who agree to accept and abide by the objects of the Association and this Constitution.
- (b) Applicants for Individual Membership must make application to the Association in writing in such form and together with such membership fee as may be determined by the Committee from time to time.
- (c) The Committee may decline any application for membership and is not obliged to give reasons for its decision.

2.3 Corporate Members

- (a) Corporate Members must be corporations, incorporated associations, partnerships, statutory authorities or government entities which agree to accept and abide by the objects of the Association and this Constitution.
- (b) Applicants for Corporate Membership must make application to the Association in writing in such form and together with such membership fee as may be determined by the Committee from time to time.
- (c) The Committee may decline any application for membership and is not obliged to give reasons for its decision.

2.4 Honorary Members

- (a) The Committee may confer honorary membership of the Association upon any person who in the opinion of the Committee is fit to receive honorary membership.
- (b) Honorary Members shall not be entitled to vote at any meeting of the Association.

2.5 Membership shall cease upon:

- (a) For an Individual or Corporate Member:
 - (i) Receipt by the Association of the member's resignation in writing;
 - or
 - (ii) Non renewal of membership within two months following expiry.
- (b) For an Honorary Member on receipt by the Association of the member's resignation in writing.

2.6 Membership may be suspended or terminated by not less than three-quarters majority vote at a Committee or General Meeting.

2.7 A member whose membership is suspended or terminated in accordance with clause 2.6 may on not less than 2 weeks written notice require the suspension or termination to be reconsidered at the next General Meeting.

2.8 The Association shall not be required to accept the renewal of membership of a suspended member when renewal next falls due.

2.9 Patron

The Committee may from time to time agree on a natural person to be appointed as Patron of the Association.

2.10 Membership Fees

The Committee may decide from time to time upon a subscription charge to be paid by Individual Members and a subscription charge to be paid by Corporate Members. The Committee may decide to set varying subscription charges in each of the Individual and Corporate categories according to the member's status as a student/pensioner/unemployed person or not-for-profit organisation. If the Committee so decides, the subscription charge payable by Corporate Members may be calculated on the basis of the size of the organisation.

2.11 Register

The Committee shall cause to be maintained a register of members containing:

- (a) the name and address of each member;
- (b) the date on which each member was admitted to the association; and
- (c) if applicable, the date of and reason(s) for termination of membership.
